Christmas Party for Children Is Set for Tuesday

"Santy" to Distribute Gifts to Little Folks at Community Fete

Antioch's traditional community Christmas party for the children will be held at the village park Tuesday evening, Dec. 23.

"Santa" will be there, to give each child some remembrance.

The youngsters may bring the "older folks," too, to join in the singing of carols afterward.

The village park, with its living "Christmas trees" brilliantly lighted, is expected to make an unusually attractive setting this year for the party.

Village Has Gala Aspect

James Starus has been appointed general chairman by Village President George B. Bartlett.

With its strings of colored lights overhead in the business section supplemented by individual Christmas trees in front of the various business establishments, the entire village has taken in an unusually festive aspect this year.

Adding to the Christmas atmosphere is the broadcasting of Christmas music over a loudspeaker system at 15-minute intervals during the afternoon and evening.

The Christmas party is sponsored by the village. The musical broadcasts are the gift of the Lions club to the community. The Lions also sponsor the preparation of Christmas baskets for deserving families that might not otherwise enjoy much Christmas cheer.

The Antioch Lumber company is donating a large quantity of candy for the sacks of candy and fruit for the children.

The Women's club is assisting in filling the bags.

Six hundred attended the fete last year.

Lake County's Emergency Fire Resources Studied

C. B. Shultis of Antioch and President Conrad Conduct Survey

Clarence Shultis, Antioch, secretary of the Lake County Firemen's association, and Norman Conrad, Waukegan, president, are engaged in making a survey of equipment and personnel of fire departments in the county, with a view to determining the working force that would be available for emergency use without leaving local areas unprotected.

The survey was decided upon at a meeting of the association's advisory board Tuesday evening in Libertyville. Shultis and Chief L. R. Van Patten were the Antioch representatives.

It was pointed out in the meeting that many of the fire departments were organized in two units, so that one unit could respond to an emergency call elsewhere while the other remained to afford local protection. In some cases where the organization is in one unit, there is also a possibility that part of the equipment or man power can be spared.

It was regarded especially desirable to assure protection to the lake shore areas, Great Lakes Naval station, Fort Sheridan and other strategic points.

The formation of auxiliary units of every fire department in the county is also expected. Citizens enrolled in these units will be given the same training as regular firemen, including rescue and first aid work.

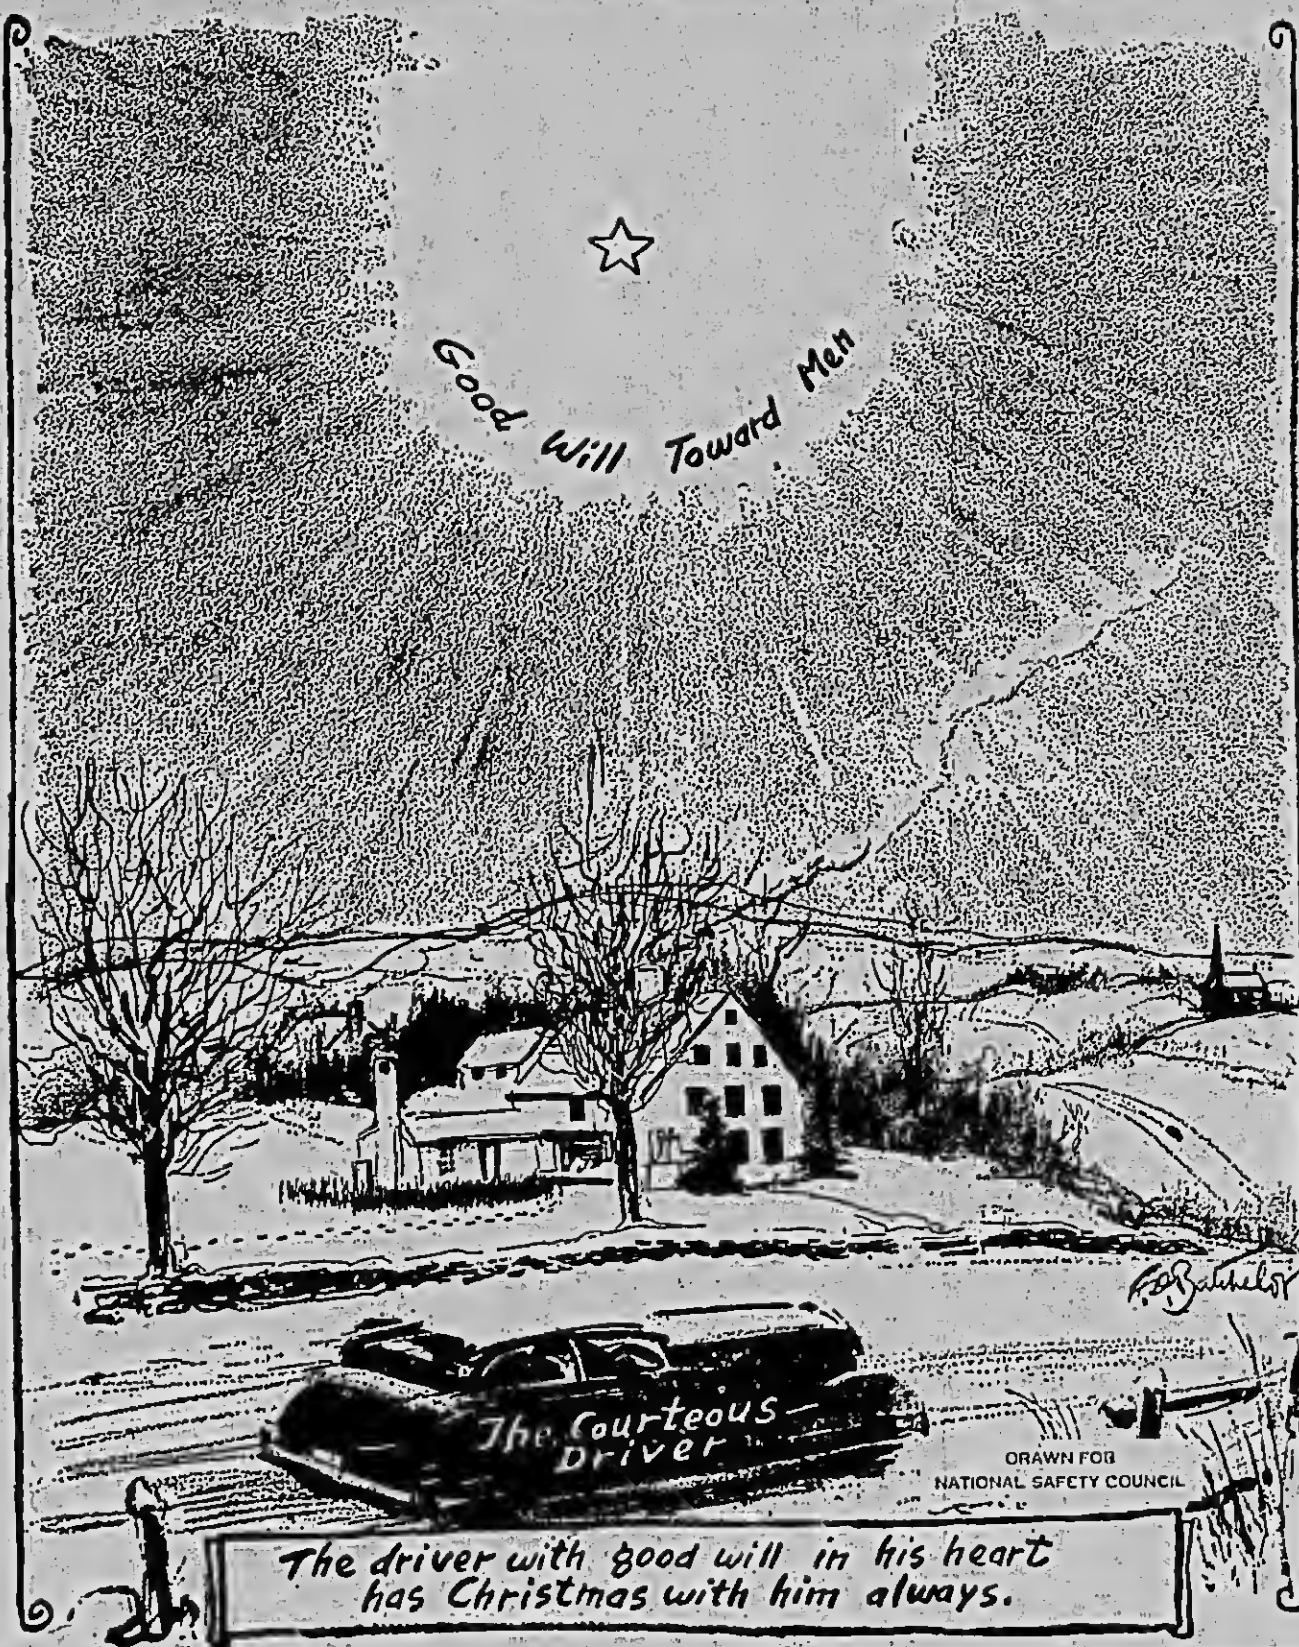

The board also decided to give its active sponsorship to the general movement to educate citizens of the county in standard American Red Cross first aid.

Further plans will be made at the meeting to be held by the Firemen's association in Highland Monday evening, Jan. 26, with the Highland and Highland Park fire departments as hosts.

Hart C. Fisher, Chicago, chief surgeon for the Public Service company and a member of the National Defense Safety Committee, will be the speaker.

Mrs. Fred Yates was hostess to the members of her bridge club at a Christmas party at her home on Lake street Tuesday evening.

GIVE COURTESY FOR CHRISTMAS

RESCUE SQUAD IN ZION TODAY

A demonstration of life saving methods was being conducted this afternoon before the student body of Zion-Benton high school and citizens of that community by the Antioch Rescue squad.

Arrangements for the demonstration were made by Principal W. L. Davies of the Zion school. The Antioch squad which has the only complete fully equipped mobile unit in the county, is expected to play an important part in national defense measures in this section of the state.

The "specially built" truck houses more than $2,000 worth of equipment, including all first aid devices, an independent lighting plant and two-way radio. All members of the squad hold both standard and advanced American Red Cross life saving certificates which they were granted after long periods of training.

William Gray, Life Long Resident of Antioch Area, Dies

William J. Gray, 80, a lifelong resident of this region died Saturday at his residence, 1020 South Main street. He had been in ill health for about a year.

Gray had been a resident of Antioch for 56 years.

The Rev. J. E. Charles officiated at funeral services held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in Strang's funeral home. Burial was in Hillside cemetery.

He was born at Lake Villa Sept. 7, 1861.

Survivors, besides his wife, Sophia, include two daughters, Mrs. Nellie Pierce of Oshkosh, Wis.; Mrs. Eva Kaye of Antioch and a son, Frank Gray of Bakersfield, Cal.; five grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Automobile and Truck Damaged in Collision

What happens "when an irresistible force hits an immovable object" was graphically illustrated in a collision in which a gravel truck belonging to the Snyder trucking concern of Lake Villa and a passenger car of which Archie Rosing, Round Lake, was the driver, figured Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock at the corner of Highways 59 and 173.

Members of the Antioch Rescue squad who were called to the scene found Rosing suffering from a cut on the head, and both drivers bruised and shaken.

The truck, a brand new vehicle carrying its first load, was turned over on its side by the force of the impact. Both vehicles were badly damaged.

Rescue Squad Adjourns Meeting to Friday Night

Plans for Defense Co-operation Discussed at Semi-annual Meeting

Co-operation with national defense work will be discussed by the board of directors of the Antioch rescue squad in a meeting Friday evening. The meeting is a continuation of the semi-annual business session held Tuesday evening in the village hall and adjourned to Friday for the completion of plans now under consideration.

The rescue truck has been thoroughly overhauled and is ready to answer all emergency calls.

Throughout the summer and fall, the rescue squad and truck have answered 31 emergency and accident calls.

This afternoon, the squad is giving a demonstration of first aid and rescue work at Zion-Benton High school. The demonstration is being given on the invitation of William L. Davies, superintendent.

FUNERAL SERVICES CONDUCTED FOR MIKE JENSEN, 58

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in Strang's funeral home for Mike Jensen, who died Sunday in Victory Memorial hospital, after a week's illness. The Rev. W. C. Henslee officiated. Burial was in Hillside cemetery.

Jensen was born Oct. 1, 1883, at Hjørring, Denmark. He is survived by his wife and by a step-daughter and step-son, Marion and Frank Spangard.

He is also survived by three sisters, living in Denmark.

Jensen came to the United States at the age of 16. On May 26, 1928, he was united in marriage to Mrs. Martha Spangard.

He was for many years employed in construction work in Antioch and the surrounding districts.

His death was attributed to complications following an abdominal operation.

Mrs. N. E. Sibley returned home Monday evening after a two weeks' visit her husband at Wright Field, Dayton, O.

SOO LINE FOREMAN DIES AT LAKE VILLA

Funeral services were held Monday in Milwaukee, for Wilhelm A. Nelson, 47, track foreman on the Soo Line railroad.

Nelson died last Thursday at his home in Lake Villa.

He is survived by his wife, Anna.

Federal Government Issues Indictments of Still Operators

Indictments against four persons who were charged with being involved in the operation of a huge still found on what was once a part of the million-dollar Paschen estate at the Wisconsin-Illinois state line north of Antioch were returned in federal district court in Chicago Thursday.

The still was discovered when the barn in which it was located caught fire, and Antioch firemen were called by neighbors who saw the blaze.

It was located on what had been "the Kaye farm" before its purchase by Chris Paschen, and which had reverted to Kaye through foreclosure of a mortgage. Named in the indictment are Cosimo Marzula and George Dicks, of Kenosha and Chicago; Joseph Green of Pikeville, Wis., and Kaye, as owner of the property.

An interesting point of law was raised following the indictments when it was revealed that the existence of mortgages against the properties Paschen had purchased for his estate prevented their confiscation when he was convicted and sentenced to federal prison several years ago for income tax violation. It was pointed out, however, that the government is authorized by the internal revenue laws to confiscate lands on which an illicit still is operated.

Motorist Goes to Movies; Automobile Catches Fire

While its owner enjoyed himself in blissful unawareness in a movie theater, the Antioch fire department was called Sunday evening to extinguish a fire in the upholstery of an automobile parked in front of the Antioch cafe.

Apparently a cigarette thrown from the front window of the car had been blown back into the automobile and lodged in the back seat, where it continued to smolder. The call to the fire department was put in by Russell Barthel from the Barthel Bros. filling station when he observed smoke coming from the car.

Damage was confined to the upholstery of the car.

Veteran News Reporter Retires

Miss Sarah Patrick Wrote for News and Other Papers for 40 Years

Miss Sarah Patrick, long an able news reporter from Trevor community for the Antioch News and other publications in Burlington, and Racine, Wisconsin, announced this week that she had retired after more than 40 years of service in the field of local journalism.

She began writing Trevor news more than four decades ago while the late J. J. Burke, founder of the Antioch News was still its publisher. She also gleaned Trevor news items for Burlington, Racine and other newspapers.

Now in her 80th year, Miss Patrick most certainly has earned a rest. The greatest tribute the News can pay her is to state that during all the years, and among the thousands of news letters sent for publication, never has there been written an unkind word about any person. She has reported faithfully the news of her community, and had words of praise for all worthy achievements of its citizens.

Miss Patrick was born in New York but was brought to Wilmett by her parents when a year and a half old. She remembers the family lived on the old homestead farm west of Trevor for just 50 years to the day. Since the demise of her relatives she has lived in Trevor.

RED CROSS FIRST AID CLASSES PASS THEIR EXAMINATIONS

A class of ten men from the Pickard pottery passed the examinations for the American Red Cross standard course in first aid Monday evening. Harry Greenlee was the instructor.

A class of nine at Libertyville, under the instruction of Herman Rosing of Antioch, passed the examinations for the standard course last Thursday evening.

Last evening, examinations were given to a class of 12, which has met at the Antioch village hall.

A woman's class is to be started after the Christmas holidays.

Many first aid classes along the same lines are also being started in nearby communities as well as in Antioch and Libertyville.

Grayslake, Fox Lake and Zion City are among those showing especial interest. Lake Villa co-operated with Libertyville in the class held there.

Persons interested in the formation of first aid classes in communities as far away as Union Grove, Wisconsin, have come to Antioch to secure information on the manner in which the local classes were organized and conducted.

Members of the class from Pickard's include A. G. Simon, Leonard G. Kohl, Ludwig G. Bauman, E. H. Kaufmann, A. H. Kaufmann, J. A. Lackowski, W. C. Steinel, L. A. Traber, Almus Young, Robert J. LaFarr.

The instructor was presented gifts of two gold vases and a zipper traveling bag in expression of the class's appreciation.

All of the classes were highly complimented by Examiner Holbek for their fine showing.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Gordon Nes Take over the Style Shop

Mr. and Mrs. H. Gordon Nes have taken over the Style shop at 900 Main street, which was operated during the past two years by Ernest Birger and the late Mrs. Helga Birger.

Mr. and Mrs. Nes have been residents of the lake region for 20 years, coming here from Oak Park. Their home is located at Channel Lake, on Wood road, off Linden lane.

Mrs. Nes, who before her marriage was Miss Julia Ross, had 10 years' experience with Marshall Field and Company in Chicago as saleslady and assistant buyer. She is a daughter of the late Ed Boss, who was with Field's for 40 years.

During their many years of residence in the lake area, Mr. and Mrs. Nes have made a wide circle of friends.

Set December 27 for Alumni Dance

The annual alumni dinner-dance for grads of the Antioch Township High school will be held on Saturday, Dec. 27, at 7 p. m. at the high school, a committee from the alumni association announced this week. Preparations are being made to accommodate a larger gathering of former grads than usual this year.

Winter Sports Program Planned By Committee

Outline of Activities Will Come Before Lions Club at Next Meeting

Tentative plans for Antioch's winter sports activities, probably including an elaborate ice carnival, will be presented to the Lions club at the next meeting, according to plans now being completed by the committee headed by William E. Brook, Assisting Chairman. Brook are Robert King, president of the Lions club, Ed Vos, Ben R. Burke, Art Trieger and Coach C. A. Wolfenbarger of the Antioch High school.

The Lions club last year purchased the lighting system used to illuminate Antioch lake, and also had erected a shelter house. With these expenses taken care of, it is expected that the various activities can be carried out this year with considerably less expense than last year and, it has been suggested that the program may be broadened to include new forms of recreation.

Skate to Music

An innovation this year, as planned by the committee, will be a juke box—nickel in the slot machine—so that skaters may skate to music if so inclined and have the price.

Improvements in the toboggan slides also are contemplated. A longer course will be provided and additional safety measures will be installed. It has been suggested that a tow-line would be a boon to tobogganers, but the cost of installation and maintenance is an item to be reckoned with, Lion members say.

Refreshment facilities are also possibilities, but options on such concessions may be left to the owners of property adjoining the lake.

Funeral services were held in the Strang funeral home Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Dean Howard Ganser of Waukegan officiating. Burial was in Hickory cemetery.

Christensen was born in Denmark Aug. 10, 1871.

He is survived by six sons, Albert, Norman, Harry, Otto, who operated the home place of recent years, Charles and Arthur and by three daughters, Mrs. Lyman (Anna) Thain, Mrs. Harold (Camilla) Rowling and Mrs. Norman (Agnes) Petersen.

Fourth Payment Amounts to $16,041.51; Part Is Public Funds

Arthur C. Lueder, state Auditor of Public accounts, has announced that he has authorized the State Bank of Antioch, Illinois, to pay a dividend of 10 per cent amounting to $16,041.51 on waived deposits.

Following the banking moratorium of March 1933, the depositors of this bank waived 50 per cent of their deposits, thus enabling the bank to resume business. The total waived amounted to $160,415.09.

This is the fourth payment to the depositors on the amount waived.

The Inevitable Has Happened

The unprovoked attack of Japan on American possessions simply marked the occurrence of the inevitable. For many months, most authorities have been convinced that we could not avoid formal participation in the war that now engulfs all the continents. The big question was when and where the spark would be ignited. The Japanese militarists, spurred by their axis comrades, have answered that question for us and for the world.

The American people enter this war with a sense of grim and bitter necessity. No thinking man wants war. It is to the great credit of our government that it did everything possible within the bounds of our national honor and interests to maintain peace. That effort failed through no fault of those who administer our governmental affairs. It failed because the ruthless conquerors of our time are bent on world domination. Nothing less can satisfy them. It is all or nothing. And so, at last, the democratic world is allied in arms against the totalitarian world in the greatest war history has ever known.

Here in America the task is clear. The American people will support their government to the limit, and they will make whatever sacrifices prove necessary. The issue of intervention versus non-intervention is as dead as last year's news. The isolationist leaders, displaying that patriotism which characterizes all true Americans, however different their opinions, have pledged their full support to the nation. From this time on, it is the job of all to show the world that a free America is more than a match for any adversary.

The soldiers and the sailors who fight in this war carry into battle a traditional freedom. They are not the unthinking, "helling" subjects of a dictator. They are not slaves, living and dying like puppets at the whim of a master. They have been reared in the freest of all great nations, under the ideals which Lincoln called, "The last, best hope of earth." They know what they are fighting for. They know how precious freedom is. And they know the sorrowful truth that blood must be shed if freedom is to be preserved.

Back of the fighting men of America will be a production machine unparalleled on earth. Labor and industry will not shirk the gigantic task that time and circumstance have given it. The price of failure would be the death of freedom. The days ahead will be hard and bitter, but no one can doubt what the eventual end will be—victory for freedom, for a way of life that respects the dignity of man.

It is all there in one word—freedom. Freedom of press, freedom of worship, freedom of enterprise. These are what we possess, and these are what we are fighting to save and to perpetuate forever.

American industry is ready for this war. Go down the roster of our great private enterprises—the railroads, the power systems, the steel mills, the motor makers, the coal and metal mines, the oil wells and refining plants, the airplane factories and the rest. American enterprise represents a veritable miracle of preparedness. And now the tempo of production will be stepped up again and again. There can be no "business as usual," "strikes as usual," or "politics as usual," from now on.

Let there be no despair. Let there be instead, uncompromising determination. War has been forced on us. It has been forced on us by a nation to which we offered firm friendship, economic cooperation, aid in solving its problems—everything, in short, except the right to pillage and destroy and conquer. Now our enemies will learn how free men, backed by the limitless resources of our free enterprise system, can acquit themselves in battle.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

THE COMING OF GOD'S SON

LESSON TEXT—Isaiah 9:6, 7; John 1:1-4, 10-14; 1 John 4:9-11.
EVANGELIST—The Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.—1 John 4:14.

Christmas again! How shall we keep it in a world torn by strife and poisoned by man's bitterness against man? Let us keep it with all the joy and gladness of our command. Let us make this the best Christmas we and our families have ever had. How? By giving more and richer gifts? No—although they have their place when rightly given and received. By feasting and merry-making? No—although they too have their place when carried on in the true spirit of love and friendship. What then? Let us make this an outstanding Christmas by centering our thoughts, our affections, our joys—yes, and our gifts of self and substance—around God's Son, whose "birthday" we celebrate.

May Christmas, 1941, be the best you have ever spent. This is the writer's sincere wish for you. One way to make it just that is to diligently study our lesson for this next Sunday, which tells of the coming of God's Son.

I. His Coming and Character. Prophesied (Isa. 9:6, 7).

God who was to send His Son into the world to become the Saviour of sinful man fittingly made known His coming through Isaiah (and others) 800 years before it took place. This greatest event in all history was the subject of exact and detailed prophecy, which was completely fulfilled. Although Isaiah calls Him "a child" (as indeed He was), he saw Him as the divine One whose glory and power is revealed in the magnificent array of names found in verse 6.

"Wonderful," a much abused and misused word, found its real meaning in Him—He really is wonderful in every way. "Counselor!" He does not need or seek the counsel of others—He is the Counselor. Have you sought His counsel? "The Mighty God"—not a mere man, but God unlimited in power. "The Everlasting Father," which is really the "Father of eternity," the One to whom eternity owes its existence. "The Prince of Peace," who will one day bring peace to the earth when He comes to reign; something we need not expect before that blessed day.

Little wonder that "the government shall be upon his shoulders" (v. 6), and that He shall reign on the throne of David forever. That is prophecy yet to be fulfilled, but it will be, even as the others, for "the zeal of the Lord of hosts will perform this."

II. His Incarnation and Redemption Completed (John 1:1-4, 10-14).

The Eternal One—who was in the beginning with the Father, He who was God and who made all things, this One who was the life and the light of men—humbled Himself and took upon Himself the likeness of sinful man. He was "made flesh and dwell among us," revealing the grace and glory of God. The incarnation of Christ is a truth the greatness and glory of which we cannot fully understand; but we know that it was for us that He came—for our redemption.

The world—His own world—received Him not. "But"—and thank God for that blessed "but!"—"as many as received him, to them gave he the power (or better, 'the right,' as in R.V.) to become the children of God." Redemption is by a new birth, a divine birth, "not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man." It is a complete redemption by faith in Him who revealed the grace of God to man. This is the great message of Christmas. Let us not miss it.

But there is another word for this precious and blessed season—it is that of love.

III. His Love and Our Love Manifested (1 John 4:9-11).

The love of God has been expressed in many precious ways, but the full and final manifestation was in the sending of His only begotten Son into the world that we might have life through Him. This is love supreme, that God loved us when we did not love Him, the altogether lovely One giving His best and dearest in loving sacrifice for the altogether unlovely ones.

Such love in making the unspeakable gift to us must of necessity call forth from us not only love toward Him, but also for one another. Christmas is an excellent time to deepen and sweeten the love which exists between Christian brethren. We need to be drawn very close to one another for mutual encouragement, strengthening of our faith, and for the effective outreach of Christ's love to the whole world through us.

The eternal, glorious Christ came. He wrought out redemption full and free. He revealed God's great love to us—and to all the world. What a delightful Christmas message that is. Let us receive it and declare it.

Voice of the Churches

A PLEA FOR A NATIONAL SPIRITUAL REVIVAL AS A MEANS OF NATIONAL DEFENSE

To worship Almighty God publicly and privately is the duty of all mankind. In prosperity and depression, in peace and in war, we must be faithful to this duty. God has given us our lives and all the good things we possess. He has bestowed upon us time, a most precious possession. Surely we can spare some of this time to devote ourselves to the task of giving Him public worship. He, Himself, has set aside one day of each week especially for this public worship. If there are troubles of a most serious nature afflicting the world today, we can lay the blame at the door of God's creatures who, for so long a time, have been growing indifferent toward their Creator.

America used to be a nation of church-goers. This is not the case today. Certainly it must be a curious twist of mind which provides an excuse for not going to church because a few church-goers are apparently worse than a few others who do not attend. This is just as foolish as the case of a man or woman who would refuse to eat because some people who do eat become sick, or who would not work because some people who do work and earn necessary compensation, waste or misuse the benefits derived from this work. If you do not practice your bowing, your bridge or your golf, you do not expect to become proficient in these things. Likewise, if you do not familiarize yourself constantly with religious doctrine and practice, you will soon forget most, if not all, of what you once knew concerning God and the salvation of your souls.

As patriotic men and women we should remember that love of country and fidelity to its laws are based upon a religious foundation. Likewise, those things which tend to break down morality in private life, are the seeds whose growth eventually destroy a nation. For this we can find no more apt confirmation than the words of George Washington, the Father of our country who, in his famous "Farewell Address," has said, "Let us with caution indulge the supposition that morality can be maintained without religion. Whatever may be conceded to the influence of refined education on minds of peculiar structure, reason and experience both forbid us to expect that national morality can prevail in exclusion of religious principle."

A great responsibility rests upon the mothers and fathers of the present generation. Their example is more impressive than all their sanctimonious advice. The things they do and say exercise a tremendous influence upon their offspring. Consequently, you mothers and fathers, who have been made co-operators with God in the work of bringing children into this earthly life, should remember that your greatest privilege and responsibility is to become His co-operators in bringing these children to Eternal Life.

War is now a reality. Of ourselves we cannot succeed in the task of restoring peace to a troubled world. For this we need the help of God. No doubt Almighty God shall demand heavy sacrifices from us if this is to be accomplished. As true and faithful citizens of a great country let us turn to God now with even greater confidence than in the days of yore. Let us work and pray under His Divine guidance. In the words of the Great Emancipator, Abraham Lincoln, "With malice towards none, with charity for all, with firmness in the right as God gives us to see the right, let us strive on to finish the work we are in, to bind up the nation's wounds, to care for him who shall have borne the battle and for his widow and his orphan, to do all which may achieve and cherish a just and a lasting peace among ourselves and with all nations."

REV. F. M. FLAHERTY,
St. Peter's, Antioch.

Deep down beneath the surface of our present-day world upheaval there exists a clash of spiritual and barbaric ideals. Caesar has ranged himself against Christ. Large sections of the human race are shouting "Give us Barabas and destroy Jesus!"

In girding ourselves for the struggle that lies ahead we need to fortify our spiritual foundations, both for days of war and the subsequent days of peace. The Church is in the world to help us in this very task, for the Church is the home and sanctuary of spiritual power and ideals. Won't you come, in these days of testing, to receive strength and guidance in waiting upon God? No man-made shelters can protect us in the storm now raging. It threatens to engulf the spiritual heritage we prize and cherish most deeply. Our faith must now reach out to the one place where alone hope and redemption are to be found.

The ships of ancient Greece carried what was called "the sacred anchor." It was so named because it was cast overboard only in time of great peril, when no other hope of safety and protection remained. America now has need of "a sacred anchor." We may find such an anchor in fellowship with the Eternal God. Build your anchor in worshipping regularly in the Church you have chosen as your spiritual home. "The Eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms; and he shall thrust out the enemy from before thee; and shall say, Destroy them!"

J. E. CHARLES,
St. Ignace's Church.

OUR NATION'S GREATEST DEFENSE

Suddenly our nation has become a solidified unit. All social and political differences have been dismissed or pushed into the background as possessing at most a secondary value. This is the nation's answer to a challenge for active sacrificial patriotism. But true patriotism must go farther. Military victory, to be of any permanent value, must be preceded by spiritual victory. Only thus can any nation, or group of nations be worthy to be trusted to administer the unprecedented powers resulting from military victory.

The church is the only institution in the world dedicated wholly to building the kingdom of God on the foundation of the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man. Through the centuries God has given the church His approval by making it fruitful. Through the efforts and influence of the church man has risen from the level of the beast to the place he now occupies. It must not fall God now. As the present crisis has unified and solidified the nation, so also must it unify and solidify the church of Christ. Every personal, social and community difference should at once be banished. With enthusiasm and devotion that knows no bounds, time, talents and material possessions should be dedicated to God without reserve. There must be no limitation or reduction to make way for material demands. Rather, sufficient sacrifice should be made to meet both.

The chief need of our nation today is men and women in private and public life worthy to be trusted to use the material resources at their disposal. Therefore the physical life and the spiritual life must be developed together or all effort is futile. Today as never before, as a nation and as individuals we need to return to the God we have so shamefully forsaken. This is the surest and most permanent means of national defense, and of building a world after the plan of God when peace comes. Now, as never before, prayer should have a large, definite and permanent place in our individual lives. Now, as never before, our places of worship should be filled. We invite all, regardless of race, nationality, or creed to worship with us next Sunday and every Sunday.

That's why some Long Distance
Christmas calls will be delayed

The mountain peak on the chart represents last Christmas. Calls from many points were five, six—even EIGHT times normal. This coming Christmas will be busier still. We'll do all we can to handle the rush with every available circuit in service and hundreds of extra operators on duty.

But no amount of stretching can expand a telephone system to five times its size, just for one day in the year. Calls to certain points may be delayed—some perhaps for long periods.

We hope you'll understand, and accept any delays in the same friendly spirit that moves you to call at Christmas.

The Observer

Mrs. Frank Rohlin has four "banty" chickens that are on the way to becoming pets of the entire family... to the disgust of Pooch, the black and white family dog, who would be jealous if it wasn't beneath his dignity.

We see where Bob Mann again has his beautiful Nativity scene arranged in his store window for the Christmas season.

The village looks kind of pretty these evenings, with the colored lights strung across the street in the business section, and with many of the stores and homes decorated for the holiday season.

Tragedy in the form of an automobile fatality in this village a few days ago brings us to the same theme we've been harping on for so long... it is hard for the driver of an automobile to see a pedestrian dressed in dark clothing at night... Please be careful when walking along streets or highways at night. Bicyclists above all others are difficult to see at night, since the bicycle seems to lift them above the range of vision afforded by the headlights, until the automobile is very close to them. And here's another word of caution—be careful about slowing down suddenly in front of trucks or other automobiles. The momentum of a heavily loaded truck is sometimes hard to check as suddenly as that of an automobile. The driver behind you may not be a mind reader.

This here now war situation has us all kind of shocked in a way. We can't help wondering—Germany must be awfully confident, or awfully desperate... we just wonder which. Make your bets, gentlemen.

And we can't help thinking that after this Japan won't have to be so terribly much concerned about "loss of face." She won't have so very much left to lose. Maybe we're old-fashioned, but we can't help thinking that honor, justice and fairness... in an individual or in a nation... have a certain indestructible value... And that the reason this country has "so long endured" through many dark times, is that we of this nation have tried, through poverty and power... to keep sight of those values, even though in our human failures we may sometimes fall short of them.

We see by the paper where some of the folks over in Europe are rejoicing because "now the United States will have to undergo some of the hardships we've been undergoing, too." Don't make us laugh! Lots of us in this country are only a generation or so removed from the pioneers... and sometimes there isn't even a generation's difference. Sure, we can take the hardships. It's the heart-break we feel over some of the sufferings in this poor old world that makes us sad. It isn't only ourselves we feel sorry for. We have sense enough, and heart enough, to feel sorry for the whole poor old mis-guided world. We may not love our enemies. We may just downright hate them. But even the enemy casualties, we know, may be someone's loved ones. The "better world" here on earth, that we have all hoped for may be a long time yet in coming, but we have not, and never will, give up that hope.

MILITARY AFFAIRS HAVE REAL SIGNIFICANCE FOR L. D. POWLES FAMILY

Capt. L. D. Powles, who has been reported as doing excellent work (he is now in line for promotion) in the supply division of the U. S. army air corps at Wright Field, Dayton, O., enjoys his duties there — but he misses the "home folks" and would like to hear from them a little more often. Mrs. Powles revealed on returning a few days ago from a visit there.

"Deak's" many friends who may wish to cheer him with an occasional letter may address him simply "c/o Wright Field, Dayton, O."

Mrs. Powles and her youngest daughter, Charlene, are now busy with preparations for going to Ohio to spend the Christmas holidays with Capt. Powles.

Mrs. Powles' older daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Maleck of Waukegan, stayed with Charlene during her recent visit in Ohio.

With a husband, a foster son and three nephews serving with the U. S. armed forces, Mrs. Powles has ample reason to follow with deep interest the "war news" of the day.

Her foster son, Donald Barth, is with the U. S. marines and is believed to have been stationed somewhere in the Hawaiian islands, although she has not heard from him since a year ago in September. She is anxiously awaiting word of him.

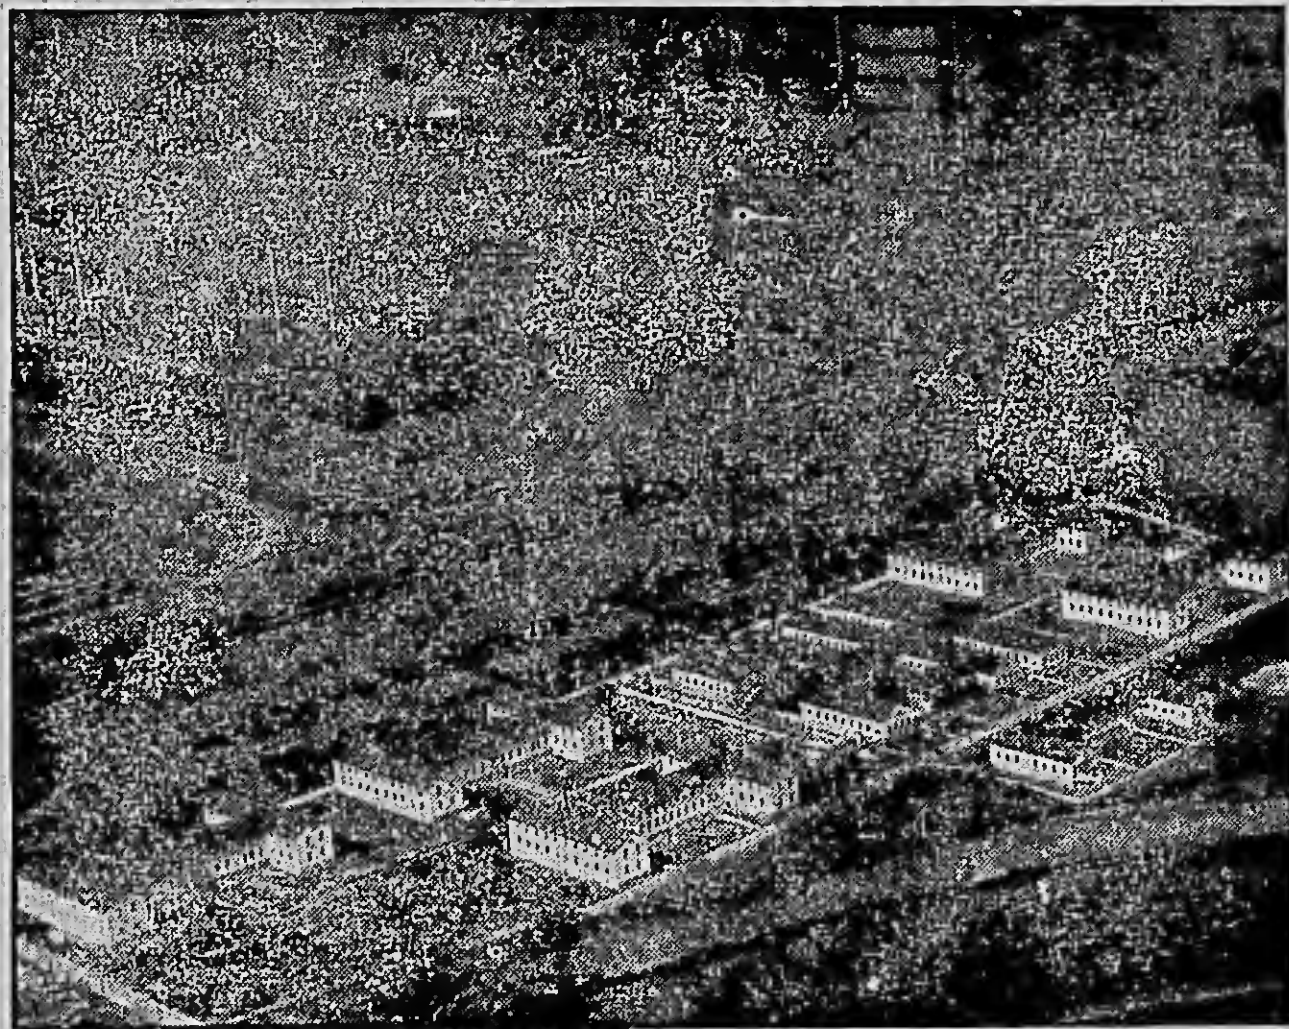

This fall she had the good fortune to enjoy a visit with her nephews, George Kaufman, Jacob Eichmann and Carl Eichmann, all of whom are with the U. S. army, while they enjoyed a 15-day furlough at their homes

Capt. Powles was home for the Thanksgiving holidays, returning to Wright Field on Nov. 23. Mrs. Powles, for whom life has become a considerable degree a series of greetings and leave-takings, packings and unpackings, rejoined him in Ohio a week later.

Powles is said to have passed satisfactorily all tests and examinations for promotion to higher rank, and to be qualified for appointment to the rank of major, should a vacancy occur.

How to shop for gifts that go on giving... year after year

THIS year above all, you say, you want the presents you give to be used—you want them to last... Well, here's the answer... Give electrical gifts. Their worth will increase as months go by.

Now meet an old hand at Christmas giving... he will show you how to shop for long-lived electrical gifts... Santa Claus!

Hello, there! Well, first thing to decide is how much you want to spend for each gift. Make a list of your favorite people—put a rough figure after each name—then come with me. We'll find the right electrical gift to fit each figure—

If you plan to spend up to $5

Does your friend like to drink good coffee? The vacuum coffee maker you give will go on pouring out good brews for years... and of course, everybody likes an electric clock for his own room, as well as other parts of the house... a pin-up lamp is the handiest thing for lighting up an odd corner...

If you plan to spend up to $10

Waffle irons last for years... you can get one that makes two waffles at a time, and stay in this price range!... Speaking of irons, the new flat irons are really something! They make ironing so easy... the right gift for any woman on your list who keeps house... or for a girl with a room at college... and don't forget—a handsome table lamp is always a welcome gift.

If you plan to spend up to $25

For people who take pride in serving snacks to their guests, a toaster with tray and service dishes is perfect... or you can give a complete electric roaster for this amount of money—something you'll be thanked for as long as you live! While we're thinking about the kitchen, don't forget that nothing adds more fun to cooking than an electric mixer... and does it save a lot of work! For someone you're particularly anxious to please—a beautiful floor or table lamp will bring years of pleasure.

And for your most important gifts

If you're an "unusual" giver, that wonderful new electric blanket is the gift you've been trying to think of... keeps people warm all night regardless of changing room temperatures, is light as a feather. Costs $36.25, complete with transformer and adjustable thermostat control switch. It's ideal for bedroom, sleeping porch or college dormitory.

And for a really big Christmas, an electric refrigerator, a washer or an electric sewing machine! I think an investment in the home shows a mighty smart bit of foresight this year.

Hope I've helped you fill out your list. Until Christmas Eve... Good-bye, and Good Shopping!

For more suggestions, stop in at your neighborhood dealer's or Public Service store. Don't put off shopping... do it now while selections are best.

... and Electricity is Cheap!

Items priced at $5 or more may be purchased on convenient terms.

LEGION NEWS

by
Adjutant John L. Horan

Now that our nation is at war, we as Legionnaires and ex-service men are beginning to feel the effects of demands placed upon us in connection with the vast national defense program. World War veterans' organizations will be expected to play an important part in the various communities because of their experience during the last 23 years in the various programs as set up for the community service, child welfare, assistance to orphans and widows and the conduct of government hospitals.

The Antioch Post of the American Legion at this time is asking full cooperation for their first public request—a complete roll-call of all boys and veterans from Antioch community who are, or who will be in the service, together with those of other communities, Lake Villa, Salem, to the west beyond Fox river and east to Russell and Wadsworth.

Seek Addresses

Blanks for the recording of such names have been printed and have been distributed to the schools of the area, and a copy of the coupon is printed in today's edition of the News. The Legion requests relatives of service men to use this blank, and in case addresses have already been sent in, then save the coupon until such time it is needed for change of address. These should be forwarded to the Antioch Post American Legion, Antioch, Ill.

The Legion realizing what censorship means, knows how well a complete list of all boys from this community now in the service will be of use in times of emergency. The first use of the addresses will be to send the boys a Christmas package just as soon as the addresses come from day to day. So please hurry.

According to plans the Legion post is standing ready day or night to assist with the civilian defense program. A large percentage of members have already registered with the department program and are awaiting call from the commander as to what the local program of the Legion is to be. Antioch should be proud of the fact that the large membership of the local post is ready in case of emergency. Training gained in the world war taught them the duties of soldiers in protecting life and property.

Mobilize for Defense

Delegates and a large number of veterans will attend the district meeting at Waukegan on Friday night. A general check on Legion membership will be one of the main topics of discussion, as the officers of the Legion want every veteran in the Tenth district either signed up with the Legion or Veterans of Foreign Wars. Where the veterans live today and what their occupations are means a lot in connection with the civilian defense program.

Arthur (Jack) Poorman of Chicago Heights, attorney and chairman of the state legislation for veterans committee will address the Legion.

CCC Camp at Chain

O' Lakes is Ordered

Abandoned Jan. 15

Orders to abandon the CCC camp at Chain O' Lakes state park on Jan. 15 were announced recently by Walter A. Rosenfield, state director of public works and buildings. Rosenfield announced that he received the order to discontinue the camp from James McIntee, national director of the CCC. Rosenfield said he had requested reconsideration of the order in the hope that it may be withdrawn so that the development of Chain O' Lakes park could be completed.

The project is designated as State Park 39, comprising a 4,500 acre recreational area with a program, which has been under way for two years, based largely on marine development. The personnel of officers and men numbering 150 comprise the company, which is known as Company B-1678 CCC. H. H. Smith has been educational director at the camp since its establishment.

"Problem Child"
Is Psychologist's
Lecture SubjectDr. Milton Saffir Speaks at Meeting of the High School P. T. A.

Dr. Milton Saffir, psychologist in the bureau of child study in the Chicago Public Schools, spoke on "Mental Hygiene and Adjustment Service for High School Pupils" before 30 members of the High School Parent Teachers' association at their second meeting of the year in the high school Monday night.

"Every child is a problem child, in one sense of the word," stated Dr. Saffir. But in the more technical sense, he defined a problem child as "one who was a source of trouble." The problem which we see is often very remote from the actual cause of the difficulty, he said, observing that "We tend to treat problems as if the cause were apparently right at the point of trouble, but the problem we see is often a symptom of another underlying problem."

The psychologist explained that the treatment of the cause for the problem must always invariably be indirect. One reason for the need for using this method is that the things that cause problems in children are not to be caused by people other than themselves. In the second place, many existing conditions of environment or heredity cannot be changed. "What must be changed sometimes is our standards," he added.

"Prevention is 1000 times better than cure," emphasized Dr. Saffir. "The increasing complexity of our society is producing a far greater number of problems. Eighty percent of adults are not really well-adjusted in every way. We hope attention to the psychological needs of children now is going to prevent many of these problems later on."

Dr. Saffir concluded his talk by answering questions for members of the audience.

The bureau of child study provides service in assisting 12,000 to 13,000 public school children with their problems.

At the opening of the meeting Stuart Good sang "O Banner Bright" and Edward Ruschewski sang "Finlandia." Both were accompanied by Hans Von Holwede.

Mrs. Irving Elms, president of the association, named the following standing committees:

Budget and Finance, Mrs. William Jones; Hospitality, Mrs. L. Reynolds; Membership, Mrs. Lawrence Yopp; National P. T. A. Magazine, Mrs. Elms; Hunter, program, Mrs. William C. Phoenix; Publicity, Mrs. A. P. Bratton; Historian, Mrs. Paul Chaser; Parliamentarian, Mrs. W. C. Petty.

Parents and teachers enjoyed a social hour at the close of the meeting.

Christmas Play to Be Presented Tonight

(By Martha Wince)

The Christmas play at Antioch Township High School will be given under the direction of Mrs. Margaret K. Phillips at 8 o'clock sharp this evening. It will be followed by several solos.

Dal Maier will sing "O Holy Night," Eddie Ruschewski will sing "This is the Day that Christ Was Born" and "Ave Maria." A solo by solo will be rendered by Edna Pedersen and Marjorie Hanson will sing "Christmas Candle," the words of which were written by Mrs. Phillips and the music composed by Hans Von Holwede. Through an error we failed to note in the last published report that the character Perky in "The Orphans' Christmas" will be played by Dal Maier.

Mrs. Phillips makes this statement in behalf of the players and members of the Dramatic club: "Now, more than ever, the Curtain Club hopes to have all the families and friends of the students join with them in an evening of merry singing and celebration of the Christmas season."

No admission will be charged but contributions to the Red Cross will be accepted in specially decorated boxes placed in the rear of the auditorium.

Home Economics Club,
FFA Hold Yule Party

The Home Economics club and the Future Farmers of America held their annual Christmas party jointly last Thursday evening.

The students played several games and then gathered around the Christmas tree to exchange gifts. Santa Claus, complete with white beard and red nose, was on hand to distribute them.

After Santa had gone the group sang Christmas carols and had refreshments.

Rhine Nelson and Lloyd Miller were in charge of decorations; Lucille Sherman, Alan Latham, refreshments; Dean Weber, Marilyn Giede, entertainment.
